A Mighty Fortress is Our God

Confession of Sin

Adapted from the Heidelberg Catechism

Because I am not my own, but belong with body and soul, both in life and in death, to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ, who has fully paid for all my sins with His precious blood, and has set me free from all the power of the devil, and who also preserves me in such a way that without the will of my heavenly Father not a hair can fall from my head; I do now confess how great my sins and misery are; how I am delivered from all my sins and misery; and how I am to be thankful to God for such deliverance.

Yet, I am inclined by nature to hate God and my neighbor, even though God created me good, and in His image, that is, in true righteousness and holiness, so that I might rightly know God my Creator, heartily love Him, and live with Him in eternal blessedness to praise and glorify Him.

Therefore, I look to Jesus the Christ, who is the true and righteous man and at the same time true God, our wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption; and I hope in Him who saves us as we are grafted into him and accept all his benefits by a true and saving faith.

Assurance of Pardon

1 Thessalonians 5:23-24

Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful; he will surely do it.

Jesus I Come

Scripture Reading

Psalm 73:26-28

My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. For behold, those who are far from you shall perish; you put an end to everyone who is unfaithful to you. But for me it is good to be near God; I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, that I may tell of all your works.
