Prelude to Worship

Come Ye Sinners

Welcome / Announcements

Call to Worship:

Psalm 24:7-10

Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle! Lift up your heads, O gates! And lift them up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory!

Invocation

Worship in Song

Come Thou Almighty King

Confession of Sin

Father in Heaven, we confess our sin and shortcomings to You. We praise you with our lips, but our hearts are far from you. We are distracted by the thoughts of our own affections and enamored with the things of this world. We speak of loving our neighbor, yet we pass by them every day without so much as a thought for their well-being. We lust and long for things that satisfy the pleasures of our flesh, but neglect and ignore those things that build up your kingdom and bring honor to your name. If you were to look upon us unfiltered, we would surely die, so look instead upon your Son and see His righteousness on our behalf, and give us faith to do the same. For your Name's sake, and for your Glory. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Psalm 103:8-14

The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us. As a father shows compassion to his children, so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him. For he knows our frame; he remembers that we are dust.

There is a Redeemer

Scripture Reading

Philippians 2:5-8

Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.
